Executive Secretary Transition Period

It appears that to maintain an uneventful changeover period until a new Executive Secretary is in place, it is advisable to identify a transition team to advise and assist the presiding Officers in achieving a seamless progression into the future.

We are persuaded to believe that the most logical course would be to include the Trustees and the Treasurer on the team because the first need of the front office will be to insure continuity in the business operations of the Valley, hence the Finance Committee which consists of the Trustees and the Treasurer. To this group we add the Deputy's Assistant, in order to preserve communications with the Council of Deliberation.

This proposal creates a definite coalition of men to advise the presiding Officers.

This motion was made, seconded, and adopted at the December Stated Meeting of the Executive Committee, with the expectation it would be implemented as such to facilitate our entry into the full transitional process.

As to conduct of meetings, the Transition Team will rotate through the Secretary's duties. Starting with the Deputy Assistant, the Trustees by seniority, and the Treasurer, if that much time is required. The Treasurer will oversee the Executive Committee Meetings and coordinate day-to-day operations, with the assistance of the Trustees.

Dr. F.S. Martin, 33°, Treasurer
