Brothers:

We want to welcome all members to attend the executive meetings. This is where plans are made for your forest. It does not matter if you have a vote or not, we want your ideas.

We are always encouraged to see visitors. We were pleased to see our D.D. introduce four distinguished brothers at the Altar at our meeting.

Remember the wreath laying on March 17 and the Convention from May 29 thru June 2.

We hope each member would secure ads for our publication The Echo. Call me if you need help.

Cedarly,

I AM THE CLAY

The more I try to give away.
The more God fills me every day.

As I empty my loving cup,
He's always there to fill it up.

He who turned water into wine
Has filled my life with love divine.

All that I am, or hope to be,
Reflects the love He's given me.

He is the Potter; I'm the clay,
Shaped and molded day by day

To be a vessel of His love
Filled here on earth by God above.

Clay Harrison

Montgomery Cedarettes

Dear Cedarettes,

Once again we had a great turnout at our meeting! As someone told me, "We get to find out who our Secret Pal is." And what fun that was! It's not easy to keep the identity a secret for a whole year, but most gals were very successful in doing just that. Everyone was happy to know her Secret Pal and now those who are participating again this year must come up with ways to keep her identity a secret all over again.

Matthew Haley celebrated his birthday on the 19th of February and Yvonne Jerman gave him a gift from the Cedarettes. The Haley family has been plagued with the flu and we hope all are feeling better by now!

First Vice President Gin Masenheimer will be presiding over our March meeting in President Nancy's absence and is requesting that all in attendance wear an "Easter Bonnet" for an "Easter Parade" she has planned. Any Montgomery Cedarette as well as any other Cedarette/Auxiliary can participate. Join us on March 16 for another great Montgomery Cedarette event!

It was nice to have PGTC Myron Jones and DDGTC Hank Dalley visit our meeting. Myron gave President Nancy a special hat to wear and Hank offered his assistance to us throughout this year.

Because of her thorough research, Paula Kendros provided the right kind of information to us novices concerning a word processor. Montgomery Cedarettes voted to purchase this type of equipment and should have one very soon. Thanks for your hard work, Paula.

Cedarettes Con't.

Please remember to save anything wearable for the rummage sale President Nancy will be holding sometime in March. Coats, shoes, hats, dresses, etc. will be most welcome. Call Nancy (589-1007) for further details.

Thanks to all who attended OKLAHOMA! at the Burn Brae Dinner Theatre on March 3. We all had a great time.

We hope Sheila Ross, Honored Queen, Bethel 63, I.O.J.D., had a successful "Family Reunion" on March 7. Sheila is the daughter of Montgomery Cedarette Corky Ross and granddaughter of Montgomery Cedarette Edna Speich.

Many thanks, too, to our Cedarettes who helped at the Job's Daughters' Rock-A-Thon on February 22. This is such a worthwhile venture and we should be really proud of all the girls who participate and help raise money for the fight against Muscular Dystrophy.

We look forward to seeing many of you ladies at the March 16, 1991, Regular Meeting of Montgomery Cedarettes. Come out and support First Vice President Gin Masenheimer!

Cedarettely,

Barb Ware

Barbara J. Ware

P.S. We were sorry to learn that our friend Elvie Wallin, Nor-Va Cedarettes, fell recently. We hope she is well on the way to a full recovery.

It is just as easy to form a good habit as it is a bad one. And it is just as hard to break a good habit as a bad one. So get the good ones and keep them.
