Norman L. Clark Grand Tall Cedar

My many thanks to the members and Cedarettas that assisted in making the Anniversary Dinner Dance a huge success. It was my pleasure to honor Myron Jones, who was our GTC in 1953, forty years ago. Also, thanks to PGTC Winston Blalock for ensuring that the hall was presentable, for setting up the table and chairs, and putting up the heat earlier in the day to keep the members and ladies comfortable while setting up the hall.

I am not sending out a ad in the Echo asking people to attend a phantom dinner or a cruise to bring money into our coffers. However, I am trying a new wrinkle by installing a wooden pyramid with plaques where people can be recognized for contributing money to the Forest. A complete description of how this program works is listed in the center of the Echo.

From The Senior Deputy

Albert R. Spadin
Senior Deputy

Dear Cedars,

On March 27, 1993, our annual Anniversary Dinner Dance was held. It was very special this year because we honored Past Grand Tall Cedar, Myron Jones, who was Grand Tall in 1953, and is our oldest living Grand Tall. Myron was roasted by many of his friends through the years. His daughter Nancy had a picture board and table with pictures of the activities that Myron had participated in. The Cedar Hall was decorated beautifully and very festive. The evening also included a wonderful dinner and dancing. Past Grand Tall Cedar Lee Ferguson was our master of ceremonies and disc jockey for dancing. It was an evening that will be remembered. Eighty people were in attendance including some we have not seen for some time, Lee's father and Eddie and Kay Berardi.

On April 3, 1993, the clown competition was held at the Baltimore Forest in Baltimore. Although I wasn't there, it was reported to me that everyone had a great time. Our lady clowns took second place in group skits and the men took third place in group skits. Harry Annis took third place for character, Linda Gevinson took first place in character, Alma Carroll took second place in character and Yvonne Jerman took first place in auguste.

Saturday night April 17, 1993, was an open meeting due to Master Mason's Night. A delicious meatloaf dinner was served before the meeting with 55 in people in attendance. After the meeting, the lady clowns entertained us with their winning skit, "Seance" As usual, they did a splendid job! We were also entertained by our ladies in an Easter Parade of hats. Prizes were given out for the prettiest, most original and funniest. Senior Deputy Con't. pg. 16

CHEERS!

It's

SPRING!!!

finally

BROTHER CEDARS:

It is great to be able to once again walk outside without an overcoat, hat, gloves, scarf, etc, and smell things like freshly mowed grass and just opened blossoms, and then enjoy a good sneeze. Ahhh, the pleasures of Spring! It means that Convention Time is just around the corner. Got your reservations in?

I can't tell you how good it is to be active in Montgomery Forest again. YES I CAN. It feels good renewing old relationships and getting that youthful feeling that comes from enjoying good old FUN, FROLIC and FELLOWSHIP, when you relax, let your hair down (what is left of it) and let the kid in you come out again. That's what Cedarism is all about!

By the way, if your name is missing or misspelled in the BOOSTER or 365 list, call me and raise heck. I won't know that I messed up unless you tell me.

See YOU at the Forest's old fashion MEMORIAL DAY PICNIC at the Allen's.

Cedarly,

Chips from the Chaplain

Harry G. Annis, Jr., PGTC
.. . Chaplain

I just heard of Lamond in a conversation with an inmate. He told how Lamond was his cousin and had such a good way of life. When I met Lamond he was collecting aluminum cans and working part time in a salvage yard. As I talked with him one day he said his family was well off. I offered him a better job, and he took it.

I found out his family was on welfare.

He said he always wanted to know the Lord, but his peers made fun of him, so he just drifted. I assured him to know the Lord is the beginning of a better life.

Lamond did join a local church. He even got a dog from the pound. I would tell him what a fine dog he had. One morning early he was walking and his dog seemed to pull him in the bush. There was a wrecked car and in it an unconscious girl. Lamond with the help of his dog pulled the girl out. The car then caught fire. Lamond called 911. The girl had a long hospital stay but was later discharged. The girl was from a wealthy family in Potomac. Lamond and his dog and family all were treated royally. The family is no longer on welfare and Lamond is in college. He says it all came to pass because God directed him, through his dog. That boy still loves that dog and so does the girl and her family. Lamond is more devout than ever. He showed me a paper he had in his pocket. It had written on it this:

"He called me long before I heard
Before my sinful heart was stirred
But when I took Him at His word
Forgiven He lifted me."

Cedarly,
Harry

Montgomery Cedarettes

Dear Cedarettes,

Our April meeting has come and gone; what a great meeting it was! President Janet welcomed our guests: from Capital's Auxillary, from Prince George's Cedarettes, the wife of a Master Mason, a prospective Montgomery Cedarette, and Janet's own daughter, Pat.

President Janet then welcomed and introduced our Past Presidents: Ellen Wright, Edie Spadin, Beryl Moyer, Yvonne Jerman, Pearl Hunt, Nancy Smith, and Gin Masenehimer. Entertainment Chairman Pat Chalk showed these ladies six baby pictures and asked them to identify them. No such luck! The beautiful babies included: Barbi Feguson, Alma Carroll, Pat Chalk, Janet Clark, Heather Mullican, and Linda Gevinson.

Congratulations to our Lady Clowns! They brought home a 2nd Place Skit Trophy from the recently held Clown Competition. If you didn't attend the meeting you missed this award-winning skit. Individual winners included: 1st Place Auguste--Yvonne Jerman, 1st Place Character--Linda Gevinson, 2nd Place Character--Alma Carroll. The Men Clowns finished third in the skit competition and Harry Annis claimed 3rd Place Auguste. The Lady Clowns plan to travel to Massachusetts next year to recapture the Traveling Trophy that had been won by them for seven consecutive years.

Hopefully you are planning to attend the TCL Convention in Wildwood, NJ, in May. Our Precision Drill Team and Parade Drill Team are practicing for their respective events that weekend. Let's be there to cheer them on. And 17 ladies have signed up to attend the Ladies Luncheon on Friday of Convention. See you in Wildwood!

I want to remind everyone about our May 1, 1993, yard sale at my hourse. If you have donations for the sale, please bring them to my house at least two days before the sale.

Hope to see many of you at our May meeting.

Cedarly,

Sunshine Chairman Pearl Hunt's report included the following persons: Gini Mullican, Doris Stadler, Marilyn Brenner, Doug and Brenda Louia, Henrietta Wigner, Emily Annis, Billy Wolfe, John Frick, and Judy Alleva (member of the Precision Drill Team). Our deepest sympathy goes to Nick and Paula Kendros on the death of the husband of Nick's daughter. And our sympathy is extended to Capital friends Jeanie and Lemoyne Dickinson on the recent death of their granddaughter.

Matthew Haley, our MD child, has not been feeling well lately but he is planning to participate in the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Walk on Sunday, May 2, using his "motorized" wheelchair. We'll let you know how much we raise for MD through sponsors in the May newsletter.

Our next meeting is scheduled for May 15 at 8 p.m. Then we're off to Convention the following week. Hope to see many of you there.

Cedarettely,

Barb Ware

A NEW DAY

Dusk falls . . . and I close my eyes
To wake to a bright new tomorrow.
Gone are . . . the labors of life, the futility of strife, and the lingering trauma of sorrow.
Dawn breaks . . . and I clearly see
A new day of heavenly creation
Fresh with new hope, renewed faith and good cheer, and the promise of eternal salvation.
