FROM THE EAST

Hello Brethren,

Our stated meeting for February was a busy one, with two new applications to receive the degrees of Masonry in our Lodge. It was also good to see Bro. Barrigan with us again after serving in the Army for three years! Welcome back to the Lodge!

The DeReimer Assembly of the Rainbow for girls put together another great dinner for us. If you haven't been here for dinner yet, you really are missing something!

Bro. Ollie Guinn was installed as our Chaplain for the ensuing year, and my thanks goes to him for filling in.

I have a couple of visitations planned for this year, and you will hear more about them as we progress.

~Ed Davis, Master~

FROM THE SOUTH

"Masonry disbelieves no truth and instead reverences all the great teachers of morality. It is beyond our purpose to decide among conflicting claims that beset the followers of Moses, Confucius, Zoroaster, Jesus, Buddha, Mohammed, and others. We do reject any attempt to lower or degrade the Deity, or to deny man's glorious destiny or to countenance immorality or to evade the duties our Fraternity enjoins upon its members.

Henry C. Clausen, 33°. Clausen's Commentaries on 'Morals and Dogma'.

~Tom McCarthy, Junior Warden~

Newsletter for March, 2012

Dear Sisters and Brothers: I want to thank everyone who attended our meeting, our members and visitors. We always have more fun when we have side-liners. Our Worthy Patron did an excellent job at re-obligating our Chapter. Those who wish to have their proficiency test, please contact the Worthy Patron before or after the meetings. Those who did not attend missed out on refreshments provided by Sister Pat Sebring. Instead of celebrating Valentine's Day, Sister Pat decided to change it up and had a Mardi Gras theme evening. We also informally closed the Bible after opening and had our refreshments, then continued the meeting. I received so many positive comments about having refreshments midway through our meeting, that we will do it at least once if not more this year. Thank you Sister Pat for the idea.

We continued our discussion regarding the two options brought before the Chapter in February, but this time with the "numbers" Brother Dave Jopson calculated for us. To refresh everyone's memory the two options were: 1) Keep the dues at $20.00 plus the per capita or 2) Decrease the dues (amount to be decided) plus the per capita. We decided to go with option 1.

I am mailing the proposed changes to the membership the week of February 20th, along with the budget we passed and the "numbers" Brother Dave Jopson prepared. We vote on the change at our March meeting.

As I stated before, and stating again, when we change our by-laws, PLEASE communicate with the Secretary and Worthy Matron. We do not want to lose ANY of our members because of their inability to pay the increase dues and assessments. There are other options available besides demitting. Also, the change takes place for next year dues 2013.

Also, we have already started preparing for Friendship Night on April 10th. Please RSVP to Alice Epperson or myself. We will be serving Saffron Chicken, Rice, Salad, and Dessert for $10.00. In order to make sure everyone gets a piece of chicken, we do need RSVPs.

Our Chapter is very fortunate to have Sister Lorene Owens, who has wonderful stories about the history and members of our Chapter. For the past three months, we have been enjoying "Story-Time with Lorene." For our March meeting, Sister Lorene has asked the members and visitors to prepare questions for her to answer. So anything you have been curious about regarding Penrhyn Chapter, come and ask Sister Lorene.

Sister Mani Holcomb will be providing our refreshments. Please wear green.

Star Love, Corrie Schroder, Worthy Matron
