Free and Accepted Masons

Millville, New Jersey

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Let there be Light

APRIL 1970

Brethren:

As I write this message the season of Easter is upon us. I know that the Trestle-board will not reach you until a few days after Easter Sunday, so belatedly I extend to all of you my most sincere wishes for good health, understanding and brotherhood inspired by an unflinching faith in God.

As this season will shortly pass us by, it reminds me of how swiftly the sands of time do flow. I am now entering the 5th month of my year as Master of Shekinah, counting the inactivity of our summer lay off 7 of the 12 months have passed, and I have hardly recovered from the excitement of Installation, however I must add that the proceedings of the Lodge thus far are very pleasing and rewarding and with the continued assistance of the present officers and past officers and the membership in general, I feel confident that the rest of the year will be fully as rewarding.

Brethren, just a week or so ago I met a brother of Shekinah, who I had not seen for sometime, I asked him why we hadn't seen him in Lodge, he explained that he had had some family difficulty and felt the Lodge would frown on him, I replied that in no given situation could any person intelligently state what he would do, until, he himself were in that position, therefore we were not qualified to judge him, but if he had or would come to us for aid, we could have assisted him in some way. So I will close this message with the thought, let us offer and seek the help, aid, and assistance of one another, and thus create a still more binding bond of brotherly love and affection.

Sincerely and fraternally,

WILLIAM H. GOSHEN

Worshipful Master
