

SHEKINAH LODGE, No. 58

Free and Accepted Masons

MILLVILLE, N. J.

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Brethren:

At the writing of this message, I am surely elated, and will no doubt remain that way, for a long time to come, over the manner in which Brother Amos L. Woodruff reacted to our visit to Grand Lodge on March 16, 1974. The weather was bad and attendance the same, due to the inclement weather, but those who attended, from our local area, as well as who are living at the Masonic Facility in Burlington, had nothing but praise and kind words for proficient manner the entire evening was carried out, and the beautiful Fellow Craft Degree. To the officers of Shekinah Lodge, and those who filled in for our ailing officers, I say, "a tremendous thank you on my own behalf, and also for Bro. Woodruff". It was truly amazing the way this 94 year old member reacted and appreciated our efforts. The highlight of the evening seemed to be when Bro. Woodruff was allowed to sound the closing gavel.

April is the month when the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge is held, on Wednesday the 24th and Thursday the 25th. Possibly many members are not aware that Wednesday evening the 24th, at Convention Hall, 2nd floor, at 8:00 P.M., a professional vaudeville show is open to all Master Masons and family. Also, same location on Thursday the 25th, immediately following the P.M. session, an open installation is held for members and family to witness the "Grand Master", and all the "Grand Line" installed in beautiful ceremony. No tickets are required for either event, so plan to attend. I am certain the ceremony will prove to be beautiful and accelerating.

April 6th, at 4:00 P.M. a bus will be leaving for Pheonixville for the annual visit to Pheonix Lodge No. 75. Potato filling has been promised on the menu, which appears to be a big attraction for many. The bus is not quite filled, so make a fast call to Jr. Warden Ron Spiels or myself, and set up your reservation on the bus. I assured "Worshipful Bro. Bob Carrig, over the phone recently, that I felt we would have no less than 40 coming up to visit. Don't let us down.

Keep in mind our annual Devine Service coming up in May. More details will be forth-coming. I will say this much, many of the brethren like the "Father-Son" aspect, so the same will be again this year, preceded by our usual breakfast.

Time flies quite fast as you take over the "East", and I find my active part of the year almost half gone already. So far it has been great. Thanks to so many faithful freinds among the brethren. I know some more pleasant activity is coming and your line of officers are anxious to make it all pleasant. Join us and enjoy it.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

DANIEL W. HAND, JR.

Worshipful Master
