

SHEKINAH LODGE No. 58

Free and Accepted Masons

Millville, New Jersey

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Brethren:

The year of 1971 is drawing to a close, and as I realize how fast the time has flown by, I cannot but look back and think how rewarding it has been. There have been many challenges rearing up; but with the help of the Divine Artist, and many of our brethren. I feel that the challenges have been met with at least a degree of success.

I owe a sincere and heart felt "Thanks" to the officers in the line who have been so very faithful in their attendance and their work, and to those old reliable work horses, the Past Masters. Without help such as I have had, I'm sure that I would be forced to admit failure. There has been but a bare minimum of time when I have asked for help that I have been turned down, and then, only when the cable tow wasn't quite long enough because of health or employment priorities.

I would certainly be remiss if I didn't extend my thanks to the "sideliners" for their attendance at our meetings. As any past or present officer of the lodge knows, these are the brethren who make the officers efforts appreciated. Without them it would all seem to be all for nought.

Thank you all again for many memories I shall keep with me always, and please accept my best wishes for a Happy Holiday Season.

Fraternally,

RUSSELL A. ROBERTS
Worshipful Master
