

Shekinah Lodge, No. 58

Free and Accepted Masons

Millville, New Jersey

Instituted - May 21, 1861

December 1972

Brethren :

To each and everyone of you ; my officers, members and all the brethren who have visited Shekinah Lodge during the past year, I extend my hand in friendship and my heart in grateful thanks. Your confidence in me and your support have made this a truly rewarding experience for me.

As many of you know, my travels have extended well beyond our 22nd Masonic District this year. I have been afforded most gracious response by many brother Masons. Among those was Lewis Moseley, Sr., P.M. of Peachtree Lodge No. 732, Atlanta, Georgia. Not only did he offer me his personal hospitality, but he extended his fellowship to each one of you by donating the enclosed brochure.

I write this last message to you as your Worshipful Master with mixed emotions — sorry to see my year coming to a close, but happy to leave this chair in very capable hands. My wants are few but my wishes are many — That you continue to support our Lodge in such a gratifying manner and — That the Lord bless and keep you all forever —

Faternally,

RICHARD A. JERVIS

Worshipful Master
