

SHEKINAH LODGE, No. 58

Free and Accepted Masons

MILLVILLE, N. J.

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Dear Brethren:

The sands of time have passed rapidly during my Masonic Year. It seems but a short time ago I was installed as Worshipful Master and the time is drawing near when a new master will preside.

I do not feel remorseful or sorry, but very elated that I had the distinct honor and privilege of serving as Worshipful Master of Shekinah Lodge. The sands of time have also brought changes, not only in the Lodge, but also as a way of life, some men can live with the changes and others have a difficult time adjusting to them, if ever.

I would like to congratulate and thank my Officers, the Past Masters, the Brethren and the Ladies that have helped and assisted in my endeavors during the year. Without this assistance, a Worshipful Master would be unable to serve and survive. There are many other Brethren in the background who play a very important part in lodge function and though they are too numerous to mention, their deeds stand out and will always be remembered. I say to these fine Brethren, Thank You, your endeavors have been greatly appreciated.

This Masonic Year has been a busy one for the Officers of Shekinah, not to mention the Worshipful Master. Although it has been a long and enduring strife, I have enjoyed the many functions, good fellowship and many new friends. From the time an officer takes the first chair until he becomes a Worshipful Master his time is well taken for several years due to lodge functions. His wife and family surely feel his absence and quite often wonder if he will ever return. To the members of the lodge I say thank you for allowing me the honor and privilege of serving you. Although I am put out to pasture, I hope I may occasionally participate. To my wife and family I say thank you for your endurance and unlock the door, big daddy is coming home.

Fraternally,

ROBERT F. ANDREWS, W.M.
