

SHEKINAH LODGE No. 58

Free and Accepted Masons

Millville, New Jersey

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Let there be Light

February 1970

Brethren:

I have often thought and asked myself, what makes for success for a Worshipful Master and his Lodge.

I feel that I have the answer - Your wholehearted support. What Master has not wished seeing an exemplification of the M. M. Degree, where there is standing room only, and where no one leaves before lodge is closed.

If you all will give it a little thought, you must be convinced that the Master and his Officers have many and varied duties and obligations, to fulfill them they require the support of every member of the lodge. As a Mason you can help by attending lodge regularly. If you can take a brother or two with you, so much the better. Remember our empty lodge room is not a reflection on the officers, but rather on the membership as a whole.

So push yourselves away from the T.V. Set (I know that this is not always possible) and come join us in brotherly love and affection.

Sincerely and fraternally,

WILLIAM H. GOSHEN

Worshipful Master
