Let there be Light

February 1972

Brethren:

My thanks go out to the committee of our Feast of St. John who worked hard and did a fine job. It was a successful evening and everyone had a wonderful time.

Our Senior Warden, Robert E. Andrews will present a program at our regular meeting in February. He has obtained two films to be shown. One is entitled "Texas City Disaster."

We will also be presented with the traveling Gavel by Elmer Lodge No. 160 at our regular meeting in February.

To the Brethren who have been unable to attend due to illness, I continue my prayer for a speedy recovery. To our brothers who live at too great a distance to attend our meetings, I send warm and fraternal greetings. To all I sincerely hope to see you able to attend our meetings as frequently as possible.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

RICHARD A. JERVIS
Worshipful Master
