My Brethren:

At our January meeting, by the unanimous vote of the lodge, Bro. Gerd Wehner was elected an "Honorary Member" of Shekinah Lodge. It was indeed a pleasure and a great privilege for me to have Bro. Wehner present at that meeting and to be able to present him his membership card on behalf of all the members of Shekinah Lodge. All of Bro. Wehner's hard work, devotion, and genuine dedication to the craft in building our new Temple have truly won him a place in the hearts of all of us. "Brother Gerd we are honored to have you and hope to have the opportunity to sit in lodge with you for years to come."

Brethren, I have over the past two years conducted my own personal survey to determine why members do not attend lodge meetings. I would like to share with you the results of that survey. When asked the question, "Are you going to lodge tonight?" Most replied — "Not tonight but I'll be out as soon as I get around to it." When asked, "Have you seen our new Temple building?" Most replied — "No, but I certainly intend to as soon as I get around to it." When asked — "How about I pick you up tonight and we attend lodge, the Officers are conferring the Entered Apprentice Degree" Most replied — "Sounds great, but I am tied up at home tonight but I hope to get around to it real soon."

Brethren it is a privilege for me to present to each of you a genuine, internationally accepted, non - expiring Round-Tu-It. Let not any member of Shekinah Lodge say again, "When I get around to it." Brethren you are all now in the possession of your own personal "Round Tu-It."

SEE YOU IN LODGE.

Fraternally,

NORMAN H. PEEK
Worshipful Master
