My Brother:

"The greatest and best of men, in all ages, have been encouragers and promoters of the art, and have never deemed it derogatory to their dignity to level themselves with the Fraternity, expend it's privileges and patronize it's assemblies."

Everytime I hear this passage from our ritual, I cannot help but think of the First President of these United States and the "Father of our Country", Brother George Washington. On the nineteenth day of this month, we will observe the birthday of this great man, who never deemed it derogatory to his dignity to level himself with the Fraternity, extend it's privileges or patronize its assemblies.

He must of indeed honored his membership in the Fraternity, because in his thoughts, words, and actions he truly lived Masonry.

I pray that when our Supreme Grand Master summons us into His eternal presence, we may also be able to say that we truly lived Masonry.

Fraternally,

ROBERT W. ESTELL
Worshipful Master
