Free and Accepted Masons

Millville, New Jersey

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Brethren :

As the beautiful days of spring burst forth and unfolds the pagentry and colors of God's splendor I begin to realize that summer is fastly approaching and I cannot help but think how the sands of time pass rapidly by and my year is fastly passing.

As a Mason have you put forth your best effort to live up to the principles of our great fraternity? Or does the principle of brotherly love mean nothing to you? Have you taken the time to visit a sick brother or help a person in distress?

My brother have I had the pleasure of greeting you in lodge? There are a great many of you that I know personally that I have not seen. Why not mark your calendar and come out to our next meeting. I am sure that you will be glad you did. Let us all make it a little habit forming again.

Brethren may I take this time to wish all of you a very happy vacation. Have fun and make a date to be with us again in September. I look forward to greeting you from the east.

God bless and watch over you,

WILLIAM H. STILES
Worshipful Master
