

SHEKINAH LODGE No. 58

Free and Accepted Masons

Millville, New Jersey

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Let there be Light

Brethren:

What is the duty of any individual member of a Masonic lodge? Is it to wear a pin, or is it to use the Blue Lodge as a stepping stone to some other group, or is it something different?

I believe a mason's duty is to attend as many of our assemblies as possible, "within the length of the cabletow." However, some cabletows tend to be short at convenient times. We all know that everyone is not desirous of taking an office, or cannot possibly attend all meetings, or serve on all committees; but one might consider that mere attendance helps to fulfill an obligation.

Try this bit of philosophy on for size. —

A man whose only income was from ferrying passengers across a river in a row boat, was asked how many times a day he performed this muscle wearing task. He was weather-beaten physically and had calloused hands; but his spirit was undimmed. He said, "I go as often as I can. The more I go, the more I get; and if I don't go, I don't get."

So it is with lodge attendance - the more we go, the more we get out of our lodge membership.

May we hope to help you get more out of your lodge membership? We would like to be able to greet you at one of our meetings in the near future.

One other phase of Masonic responsibility is benevolence. This is the ministering to the needs of others and lending a helping hand to a person in distress. In my limited experience, I have found that it is characteristic of most Masons and it is to our credit that many "outsiders" know this, as well as we do, even though we don't care to publicize it.

Fraternally yours,

RUSSELL A. ROBERTS

Worshipful Master
