Free and Accepted Masons

Millville, New Jersey

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Let there be Light

Brethren :

No one who reads our ancient charges can fail to see that Freemasonry is a strictly moral institution and that the principles which it inculcates inevitably tend to make the brother, who obeys their dictates, a more virtuous man. What this morality is, has been so well-defined in a late address before one of our Grand Lodges, that nothing I could say would add strength to the sentiment, or beauty to the language.

“The morality of masonry requires us to deal justly with others; not to defraud, cheat, or wrong them of their just dues and rights. But it goes farther; regarding all as the children of one great father, it regards man as bound by piety, masonic morality, and fraternal bonds, to minister to the wants of the destitute and afflicted; and that we may be enabled to fulfill this high quality of humanity it strictly enjoins industry and frugality, that so our hands may ever be filled with the means of exercising that charity to which our hearts should ever dispose us.”

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

RICHARD A. JERVIS

Worshipful Master
