

SHEKINAH LODGE, No. 58

Free and Accepted Masons

MILLVILLE, N. J.

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Dear Brethren:

The month of November certainly promises to be a busy one. This is the time of year that we honor our ladies and I have selected a Trestleboard which I felt would appeal to the wives. This is also one night of the year that Lodge members should set aside and plan the evening for their wives. Goodness knows they surely deserve it. The committee has worked hard and has arranged a very fine evening for the ladies.

A dinner will be held on November 9th, 1973 honoring Brother Edward Stites who has recently received the 33rd Degree. The confirmation of the 33rd Degree is the highest honor and tribute to a Mason and I feel quite humble in being able to honor Bro. Ed with a Dinner and Meeting in his behalf during my year as Worshipful Master.

Highlighting the festivities for the evening will be Guest Speaker August C. Ullrich, Past Grand Master of the State of N. J. and also a 33rd Degree Mason. I am sure M.W. Ullrich will have words of wisdom and an inspiring message for all the brethren. I hope that many of the brethren will set this date aside and join me in extending to Bro. Ed our warmest Masonic congratulations.

November 23rd will be Past Masters Nite and the Past Masters of Shekinah Lodge will confer the Master Mason Degree upon one of our many candidates. It is always a pleasure to watch the Past Masters of Shekinah perform in their most excellent manner and I am surely looking forward to this evening and a fine turnout.

As I initially stated, November will be a busy month and I urge the brethren to attend and have a good Masonic Fellowship.

Fraternally,

ROBERT F. ANDREWS
Worshipful Master
