

SHEKINAH LODGE, No. 58

Free and Accepted Masons

MILLVILLE, N. J.

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Dear Brethren:

The summer months have rapidly drawn to a close and it is now time to continue our Masonic Work. The summer has produced life, death and intrigue. Life for those who were born, death to those who have enjoyed the sands of time and intrigue in our system of government; The Watergate. How so many men can recall what they said and done and what others have said and done without any records and over such a long period of time is beyond my comprehension.

The integrity, faith and trust of high government officials surely appears to be nil and the foundation of our country appears to be coming apart at the seams. Lets us hope that masonic virtues and tenets can cement the cracks and strengthen the foundation. However, regardless of the end results the effects of the Watergate will be felt in all walks of life in the future and the checks and balances will become almost insurmountable as we wade through a sea of paper.

Brother Phil Barnes is steadily recuperating from his illness and has returned to his dynamic form. There was a lull in the Temple Association during his absence, but his recovery has inspired the much needed spark of energy.

I believe that many brethren have taken a negative attitude toward the new Masonic Temple and feel that the goal is too high to achieve. Shekinah Lodge is fortunate to have members from practically every walk of life; blue collar to professional, and I further believe that much work can be accomplished by the members themselves.

I look forward in the future to the laying of the corner stone and on to greater goals to the burning of the mortgage. The committee has fulfilled their obligation and I have the utmost confidence the brethren will fulfill theirs.

Fraternally,

ROBERT F. ANDREWS, Worshipful Master
