My Brethren:

While preparing my trestleboard, I realized that the first week-end in September we celebrate Labor Day. Webster defines labor as: a piece of work, to work or toil, to move slowly with great effort, persistent exertion of body or mind. I feel we could not have chosen a better month to burn our mortgage than the one in which we celebrate Labor Day; for my brother, we did move slowly and with great effort to build this beautiful temple. Due to the labors of our dedicated brothers, we shall on the 8th of September, 1979 at exactly 5:00 P.M. burn the mortgage on our magnificent masonic edifice.

We also will have the pleasure of having with us Most Worshipful Edgar N. Pepler, Grand Master of Masons for the State of New Jersey.

We will open the lodge promptly at 4:00 P.M. for a very short meeting, after which we will retire to the parking lot where the "Mortgage Burning Ceremony" will take place. I extend an invitation to you to join with your brothers on this very special occasion and hope that you and your wife will come and witness the "Mortgage Burning Ceremony" followed by an Open House and Refreshments.

Also on the 22nd of this month we will have the pleasure of having with us as our guest the members of Phoenix Lodge No. 75, Phoenixville, Pa. I hope you will join with me in welcoming these very special brothers.

On August 11, 1979 Shekinah Lodge held another very successful fishing trip. My many thanks to Brother Bucky Lynch for the many hours of preparation he gave to insure its success.

I hope all of you had a prosperous and eventful summer, and I am looking forward to greeting you in September.

Faternally,
ROBERT W. ESTELL
Worshipful Master

Brethren, maintaining a current mailing list depends on the membership notifying the secretary of any change of address. If you are contemplating a change, please forward to me the details of your new location. As the Grand Lodge is in the process of computerizing direct mailing. I'm sure it will make their job easier also, but again it depends on you. Please let me know of your new mailing address. Thank you.

Addresses are needed for the following brethren:

Bro. Leon Henderson, Bro. Harry D. Pettit Bro. Earl S. Schultz
Bro. Howard M. Hoffmon Bro. Donald P. Shea, Sr. Bro. Charles Pangburn, Jr.
If you should happen to know where these brethren are located, please contact the secretary either by mail or telephone. Thank you.
