

NOBODY CARES!

Yes, that is the feeling of countless thousands of men and women all across America; and unfortunately it is the truth in many cases. There are patients in hospitals and nursing homes throughout the country that seldom if ever, have a visitor or a call from someone who cares.

It is a lonely feeling and one that seems to be the only visitor that ever comes. Someone in a nursing home said "The years pass by quickly; It's the lonely days that never seem to end".

My Brother:

"Masons Care and We'll Always Be There." was just one statement from the inspiring Commentary delivered by M.W. Thomas R. Dougherty P.G.M. at the recent Leadership Seminar. He talked about the M & M's of involvement — Maximum vs. Minimum. He also talked about the giving, sharing, and caring of Masons and their organizations.

Few Masons ever hear the story or know of the dedicated and devoted Brethren who every year spend more than half a million hours in Service to mankind. These Brethren are the volunteers in the M.S.A. hospital visitation program. They have represented all of us in the finest possible way. They have put into practice what masonry teaches all its members.

Now it is up to the Brethren of Shekinah No. 58 and the 22nd district to emulate the example set for us by volunteering and supporting the visitation program underway.

At the N.J. Memorial Soldiers' Home in Vineland. Attend the church service at the home on April 10th to find out more about this program and see it in action. Will you get totally involved?

Thanks to those who supported the recent blood bank visit. Forty-six pints were collected. Shekinah accounted for twenty-one; Vineland, nine; Neptune and Brearley, six each; Brotherhood, three; and Evening Star, one. I just know that on the next visit, May 12th in Millville, that Shekinah will have fifty donors, WE CAN DO IT!

Remember when you were raised?

Would especially encourage you to participate in the Annual Migration to Phoenixville — Please help us make a good showing. There are still plenty of seats remaining on the bus.

Looking forward to seeing you on April 'Educators' Night.
