Dear Brethern:

"The Masters of The Lodge"

We are taught how to recognize the Master of the Lodge, any trestleboard will reveal who the Past Masters were, if the line of officers progress in a normal manner, we can determine when each one will become the Master. If all of this is true, who are "The Masters of the Lodge?"

Consider some of the Masters duties, Brethern, he has great responsibilities, power and authority. He also has hopes and projects that he would like to see materialize. He is elected to his office by the true "Masters of the Lodge", the Brethern.

You, the Lodge Members, by your action or inaction, by your support or non-support, by your discharge of your power, your responsibility's, and your authority, are "The Masters of the Lodge".

You determine how a new candidate receives his degrees, how he perceives Masonry and Masons. You determine whether or not the Lodge has a good line of officers to lead it. By YOUR decisions and participation, you determine the Lodges survival Brethern.

The Master of the Lodge can only be a dreamer if the "Masters of the Lodge" do not help reach the goals he has set.

Ask yourselves Brethern – are you really that busy that you can't attend Lodge once in a while? Take an inventory of how you spend time, it may surprise you.

There is a saying that I always smiled at when I heard it, it goes like this, "when you are up to your knees in alligators, it's hard to remember that your first objective was to drain the swamp". Brethern, the alligators are coming; Won't you help us drain the swamp before they get too high?

If you have been enjoying the benefits of Masonry, come out to Lodge and help others enjoy it. Remember Brethern, YOU and I equal the "They" that we often hear about, "They" didn't do this or that, "They" didn't care, "They" were too busy to attend Lodge, "They" were responsible, etc. Let's not let "They" or "Them" let Masonry continue to decline and die out. Let's YOU and I build it up, strengthen it and keep it strong for all to enjoy. SEE YOU IN LODGE BRETHERN!

Fraternally,

MARVIN WHITE, Worshipful Master
