December 1987

To My Brethren All:

First of all, it would be very difficult for me to express in words, the heartfelt thanks that I owe to the members of this lodge, in allowing me to serve as Worshipful Master this past year.

The strength and support of the participating membership, made difficult tasks both enjoyable and very meaningful to myself when accomplished. Hindsight seems to always afford the observer a better perspective, than his observation of things that are taking place at present. There are so many things, in looking back that you wish you had done differently, or with a more extended view.

There are some necessary changes that have been made for the betterment of our lodge. There are some changes which have been discussed and hopefully will bring about more stability and a better rationale to the purpose of our existence.

There are necessary changes that will have to be made in the future to insure our continued existence and prosperity.

While extending my gratitude to each and every one of you, I would earnestly and most sincerely hope that more participation by the membership, more communication between each and every one of us, and more rededication of the principles and fundamentals of this great Fraternity will be forthcoming, and through the hard work, and application of us all, the continuation of our Great Brotherhood will remain strong throughout the years to come.

Fraternally,
GARY LAWSON
Worshipful Master
