My Brethren:

At our regular meeting on February 1, 1980, at the recommendation of the Board of Trustees, a Ways and Means Committee will be appointed to seek ways to raise monies to help with the operation and expenses of the lodge. The proceeds from the fund-raising events sponsored by this committee throughout the coming months will be used to complete our banquet facilities and provide a buffer against the ever rising cost of fuel oil, electricity, and other essentials. By doing this we can fully enjoy our magnificent Temple which was erected by the arduous labor and unselfish benevolence of so many of our brethren.

Activities being considered include dinner of all kind, scrap drives, hobby and craft shows, sale of Masonic items, etc. The success or failure of this program rests with each of us — by building a financially strong lodge today we can ensure the perpetuation of Shekinah Lodge and its principles for our children's children to enjoy.

Fraternally,

J. ROY OLIVER
Worshipful Master
