My Brother:

It makes me happy to tell you that we have entered into this new Masonic year in a very busy fashion and I hope that we continue to be busy. We have candidates to confer the different degrees upon and other programs planned for the coming months ahead, so whenever possible come out and enjoy the friendship and brotherly love that our lodge has to offer.

Our building committee had a meeting recently and other than the two rest rooms in the basement being completed this past fall, things have been more or less at a standstill on the building for some time. The reason for this is because of the lack of funds and not the lack of manpower. We are fortunate in Shekinah Lodge to have Brethren of every walk of life, and skilled in the various trades, for without them and their willingness to support the lodge in our many projects we would not have the beautiful temple we now enjoy.

We are about to start work on our banquet hall and kitchen area, by the time you receive this trestleboard some work will have been started. There is much to be done, if you can find some time and wish to be of help, skilled or not, I am sure there is something you can do, please contact R.W. Bro. Richard A. Jervis chairman of the building committee.

We have again been invited to Shekinah Chapter No. 82 Order of the Eastern Star on February 4, 1981 for their annual Master Masons Night. Dinner will be served at 6:30 P.M. followed by entertainment in the lodge room, also M.W. Edgar N. Pepler Past Grand Master will be a special guest. I know that this will be an enjoyable evening for all.

If you have not visited our Masonic Home in Burlington, N. J. we are planning another "Shep Hogan Day" at the home, possibly in March. If things work out for March, we will be conferring the M.M. Degree upon one candidate, have dinner and tour the home. The home is really something to see and I know that Shep and the other guests are always glad to have us visit with them. I will have more information on this trip in March Trestleboard.

I am looking forward to greeting you in our lodge.

Fraternally,

GEORGE CARTY, Worshipful Master
