My Brother:

As we have all heard at one time or another as masons, I will repeat it now, "I have long sought this opportunity" I am very happy to be Worshipful Master of Shekinah Lodge and consider this opportunity a great honor and a privilege.

I can not find the words to tell you how happy I was with the entire installation, not only for myself, but for all the officers. We do have a fine line of officers and I hope that you give them the support and encouragement they deserve.

I thank everyone who attended our Installation and a special thanks to my Installing Team, R.W. Norman H. Peek, W.B. William Bowen, W.B. Al Shea, W.B. Robert F. Andrews, and Brother Norman A. Schanck for a job well done.

My congratulations to W.B. J. Roy Oliver for a fine year as Worshipful Master, and I wish W.B. Roy the best in his future endeavors.

I am looking forward to a fine year and will try to do my best for the benefit of masonry and Shekinah Lodge. I promise my continued support to the lodges in the district and to our M.W. Grand Lodge.

There are two things I am concerned about, I think we should all try to do better by our sick brethren. We do have a sick committee, but we should all try to visit or send a card or maybe even phone a brother who is sick. I know it means a lot to them. Also our blood bank needs all the support we can give it, so when possible come out and bring a friend with you, he or she does not have to be a mason to give blood.

I hope everyone had a Merry Christmas and Happy Holiday Season and wish you all A Happy New Year.

Fraternally,

GEORGE CARTY
Worshipful Master
