Brethren:

Shekinah Lodge is indeed fortunate to have two of its Past Masters appointed to positions on the Grand Staff at the Grand Lodge Convention in April. R.W. Norman H. Peek was installed as District Deputy Grand Master for the second consecutive year, and R.W. Richard A. Jervis was installed as Grand Chaplain. We congratulate these distinguished Masons for their achievement and wish them the best for the coming year.

Our Junior Master of Ceremonies, Bro. Bruce Ferguson, has relocated to Missouri to take up a sales position with his company. We will certainly miss Bruce and his fine quality of work, and wish him the best in his new capacity. At the same time we welcome Bro. William C. Toth to our line of officers as Junior Steward with the confidence that he will discharge his duties faithfully.

Those brethren of Shekinah Lodge who have attended our meetings over the past five months will attest to the fine quality of work your officers have rendered. I am very proud of our line of officers because they are dedicated and they strive for perfection. I encourage all of our members to come out and support our lodge and its officers - they are working hard to make Shekinah one of the best ritualistic lodges in the state.

Finally, as we go our separate ways during the summer recess, may the Grand Artificer of the Universe smile on each of us and guide and direct our ways until we meet again in September. Please have a happy and safe summer.

Fraternally,

J. ROY OLIVER
Worshipful Master
