

June 1983

My Brother:

This Trestleboard begins with a quotation from Brother Theodore Roosevelt which seems quite apropos at this time and requires no explanation:

“The lesson of Brotherhood — that is, the lesson that has got to be taught and got to be learned and applied to us as a people if we are to solve the great industrial and social problems of today. If we could get wage workers and employers in any given occupation or in any given district in a lodge together, I guarantee the result. I guarantee what will happen. Is not that true? Do you not think so? If that thing could happen we would come always into the lodge, each respecting his Brother and each wanting to do what was good for his brother; each recognizing that in our form of government every man of us has to be his Brother's keeper. Masonry not only bids us and teaches us in this direction, but makes us care for the brethren that stumble and fall, and for the wives and little ones of those who are beaten down in the harsh battle of life.”

This year has passed quickly and the month of May likewise. We eagerly await Awards Night on May 28 and encourage you to attend.

The Grand Lodge of Instruction went off very well — Congratulations and thanks to all who helped and participated. The Blood Bank visit was also well supported — with 53 pints donated. Shekinah was responsible for thirty of these. Thanks to Chairman Bucky Lynch and all those who gave of their time and blood. The trip to Burlington for W.B. Shep Hogan Day was also an enjoyable event. It will certainly be a memorable — very unforgettable — Communication for those Brethern who witnessed the Degree and activities following. Congratulations to the officers for the outstanding Ritual work and thanks to all who attended and helped make it a tremendous success. Sincere appreciation to W.B. Bill Goshen and R.W. Dick Jervis for completing the arrangements.

We have again heard the familiar soft notes of the funeral bell tolling for those of our beloved Brethren who have been called by the Grand Master of the Universe to the land where our fathers have gone before. They will all be sadly missed — but fondly remembered. May their memory be eternal! Amen.

Fraternally,

PAUL N. PANTELIS, Worshipful Master
