

June 1984

Dear Brother:

One of the greatest challenges we face today is that of spreading the principles of our fraternity to the world at large. At no time in our history has the need been greater than today to disseminate the ideals taught by our craft.

In the Arthurian Legends, King Arthur called for the establishment of a new order. His round table was built on the ideals of goodness and virtuous conduct. Their task was to spread these ideals throughout the Kingdom. In today's society with its relaxed standards of morality and ethics, the need for an order to spread virtue and morality has never been greater. By precept and example we must carry the torch of Masonic Light to enlighten the world. By so doing our fraternity will continue as a viable and vibrant force in our communities, working to make the world a better place to live. Are "YOU" ready for the challenge? Become a life member — Make masonry a part of your life everyday.

On May 12th, we traveled to our Masonic Home in Burlington to confer the Fellowcraft degree and visit the home and our brethren who are guests there. It was a truly enjoyable day. I encourage each of you who has not had a recent opportunity to visit our fine home to make a visit and see the beautiful facility that we have.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish each of the brethren and his family a safe and healthy summer. Although we don't meet regularly during July and August, we must continue our labors throughout the summer so that we can resume in September with a renewed commitment to our lodge and to Masonry.

Fraternally,
ROBERT J. HAYES, Worshipful Master
