June 1987

To My Brethren All:

Did you receive a bargain when you made your investment? Do you feel that you paid a fair and just price? Are you pleased with your purchase and has it been useful to you? Was the warranty that you received adequate?

When questions like these are asked about Masonry, how long will it take you to evaluate your answers and respond with truth and sincerity?

Is there a price that can be placed on Brotherly Love and Affection?

How far could charity extend, for you to receive enough compensation for your effort?

Does the shield of 'Truth' surround and protect you from every attack that is made on your person?

My Brethren, the questions are easily asked, but the answers depend upon the response of each individual, as to his inner most feelings and judgements.

I find myself to be happy with the 'Bargain Basement Rate' which I have paid, as a contrast to the Luxury Benefits I enjoy.

Although I am sure that your feelings and judgements differ only insignificantly from mine,

Search for the answers — Respond when time permits — Participate whenever possible.

There are rewards much greater than any material wealth that can be acquired if you can just find the time to receive them.

Fraternally,

GARY R. LAWSON
Worshipful Master
