June 1989

Brethren:

This year, four of our officers resigned, which was beyond their control, due to health and employment reasons. We never know when our cable tow will be shortened unexpectedly. A meeting was called by a group of concerned past masters and four of them agreed to fill the chairs for the remainder of the year.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the Brethren for an important undertaking.

We have already completed the first half of our Masonic year. As we adjourn for the summer, hold fast to that which is good, support the weak, help and cheer the sick, and may the blessing of God be upon you and remain with you forever. Lord willing we will all unite in the fall to resume our labors.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

FLOYD G. TAYLOR

Worshipful Master
