

My Brother:

By this time you should be recuperating from having gotten the taxes done. Now it's time to get on with some of the activities of the Lodge. It's spring and the earth is springing with new life. Likewise are the quarries of the Lodge and District. Our recent visitation to Phoenixville was a thoroughly enjoyable evening for the thirty-one brethren who made the trip.

We begin this month with the Grand Lodge of Instruction. The 22nd District was best in the state last year and we look forward to repeating that achievement. We also look forward to seeing many of you come view the Exemplification of the Ritual. In addition to the business of the next regular meeting, we'll also have a continuation of the history begun the previous meeting by W.B. Charlie Finch. Also, if the Brothers are prepared, a Master Mason and Fellowcraft exams will be given.

Then the Bloodmobile returns to Shekinah on May 12. Brethren, would very much appreciate your efforts in getting to Lodge to donate that evening or getting a replacement or two, or three. We're going to try and call all those who have donated previously in order to get at least fifty donors out that evening — I know it's possible and we can do it. If you've never given please make this your first.

There remain two still very important communications — one, the annual trip to Burlington for Shep Hogan Day. Incidentally, we will try and help Brother Shep celebrate his 95th birthday on that day. We'll also give our wives the opportunity to see the home.

Two, the annual awards night — at which M.W. Harold D. Elliott 2nd, P.G.M. will be the guest speaker. This should prove to be a very enlightening and enjoyable evening — and with the assistance of R.W. John M. Robinson, who was master 25 years ago, we hope it'll be an evening you won't forget. Please come and help honor all those who'll be receiving awards.

Please join with me in wishing our new Grand Master, M.W. Edward R. Woods all the best as he begins his year.

Fraternally,

PAUL N. PANTELIS, Worshipful Master
