Dear Brethern:

We as humans adapt to many things and tend to take them for granted. I think good leadership is one of them. We have been blessed, in the 22nd Masonic District, over the past six years with a man who has brought excellence in Masonry to the attention of every Brother in the District and throughout the State of New Jersey.

Right Worshipful Norman H. Peek has exhibited and surpassed every expectation of a District Deputy Grand Master. His mannerisms have left an impression that can never be forgotten. His ability to lead and instruct, his self dedication and friendliness, his willingness and patience, has been an inspiration to everyone within the circle of his acquaintance.

It takes a special kind of person to dedicate himself to the betterment of mankind, and to share his knowledge with others. I'm sure his has not always been an easy task. I'm sure we did not always respond as we should to what he endeavored to instill in our minds, but his patience never faltered.

Although his service as our District Deputy Grand Master has run its course, we know his work in Masonry will never end, and that his dedication to the Fraternity and to the Brotherhood of Man will never diminish. We wish him well and thank him for a job well done.

The biggest things in life are the small kindnesses.

WILLIAN C. PARR, JR., Worshipful Master
