To My Brethren All:

May 1987

“ . . . and the heart and the tongue join in promoting each others welfare, and rejoicing in each others prosperity.”

Many times as we travel lifes highways, we find directional signs that tell us when to Stop, and when to Go, when there is danger present and when it is Safe to proceed with assurance until our destination is reached, and our purpose fulfilled.

How much easier every journey is made, when joy and happiness replace mistrust and suspicion, so that even though our journey, or expectations, may fall somewhat short of our objectives, we find our traverse, even though perhaps incomplete, to be worthwhile.

The month of May will bring to Shekinah Lodge some important events, ranging from the 22 Masonic District Grand Lodge of Instruction, to our 125th Anniversary, and culminating in the Awards Banquet to honor several of Shekinah's members for their long years of dedication.

These events have required a considerable amount of preparation and hard work on the part of the officers, Past Masters, and loyal white apron Brethren to bring about these occasions in the most pleasing and satisfactory manner.

I would hope that you, my Brethren, will attend and support as many of these functions as your individual cabledow will allow.

Faternally,

GARY R. LAWSON
Worshipful Master
