

November 1984

Dear Brother,

Happy Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving is a time for everyone to consider the bountiful gifts each of us is fortunate to have. Masons, especially, should consider those manifold blessings and comforts we have, which we owe to the "Bounty of Divine Providence". The personal care and concern extended to us by the Supreme Architect of the Universe directs us to live a virtuous life and practice those valuable masonic tenets which help to make the world a better place. We should also be thankful for our great fraternity and the richness it has given our lives.

In giving thankfulness to our fraternity, we should remember those who have given so much to make Shekinah Lodge the outstanding lodge that it is, our Past Masters. We will be honoring the Past Masters of Shekinah Lodge on Friday, September 16th. We will be conferring the Master Mason Degree that evening with the Past Masters doing all of the work. Be with us that evening to share your appreciation for the contributions these dedicated members have made.

Let us also give thanks for our loved ones. It is their support and concern that enables us to do so much that makes our lives meaningful. Without them we would accomplish little.

And finally, we should remember those in need. One gift we can share this month is the gift of life through the donation of blood to our blood bank. November 15th will be our final blood bank for 1984. With a good turn out we can surpass last year's total.

May God's blessing continue to be with you.

Fraternally,

ROBERT J. HAYES,
Worshipful Master
