

Brethren:

As September dawns upon us we pause to reflect upon the summer recess and its brief respite from Masonic labor. While relaxation has its merits, we must acknowledge that it is through work that we develop the skills and mental acumen which distinguish us as beings created in God's image. Therefore, let us put our shoulders to the wheel and rededicate our efforts so that Masonry may be enriched by our thoughts, words, and deeds.

On July 30, 1980, Shekinah Lodge lost a member who exemplified Masonic labor. Our Tyler, Bro. Carl A. Muhlig, passed away leaving behind an emptiness which will be felt for many years both in Shekinah Lodge and many of the subordinate bodies. We will all miss him. Bro. Jim Hines has graciously offered to fill the tyler's position for the remainder of the Masonic year which is greatly appreciated.

Brethren, much remains to be done in the coming months including Phoenixvilles' annual visit, Past Masters' Nite, three raisings, the Official Reception for R.W. Richard A. Jervis, and Ladies' Nite. We urge you to come out and support these worthwhile events.

Fraternally,

J. ROY OLIVER
Worshipful Master
