September 1985

Dear Brethren:

It seems as though our summer recess has just begun and here we are slipping into the fall season, which means most of our vacations are over and all the chores we saved to do in the summer are completed. If you are like me, the vacation was great but some of the chores still need attention.

The fall season is undoubtedly a beautiful time of the year, one which has to amaze everyone, especially when we view the works of the Master Painter as he transforms our foliage and landscape into a picture to behold.

We as Masons also have pictures to paint, but in order to make them lasting and impressive, we cannot just stand by and hope they take care of themselves. We need to push forward from what we now have to a more perfect way of life for everyone.

It takes men of character to build a strong, free, and moral society. Our efforts in this area are essential and what we do today will be reflected in our children tomorrow, even though the pictures are yet to be painted.

Fraternally,
WILLIAM C. PARR, JR., Worshipful Master

FROM THE EAST

The continued success of our Masonic youth organizations, Rainbow and DeMolay, is important to all of us. These fine organizations are not well known in many areas. We can each help by spreading the word about Rainbow and DeMolay. Tell how they build strong characters; solid citizens that we can all be proud of. Tell your family, tell your neighbor, tell your friends. There are 62,000 Masons in New Jersey. If each of us told just one person a week, what a difference it would make.

If you know of someone who is interested in joining Rainbow or DeMolay, and need information or assistance, please contact Most Worshipful James E. Duke, Grand Master of Masons of the State of New Jersey at P.O. Box 707, Burlington, NJ 08016.
