Dear Brethren:

"They were men enough to face the Darkness"

Brethren, These were the words that Joseph Conrad used to describe the early explorers that traveled to Africa in his novel "Heart of Darkness".

I often think of them when I think about Masonry's mission in our own world of darkness. Everything about Masonry's teachings speaks of light and the spreading of Light and Knowledge. Masonry makes us "Men enough to Face the Darkness" Brethren. It gives us the working tools to displace the darkness with light. Our proper application of the working tools, guided by the "Great Light of Masonry" is all we need to be better men and better masons.

Take a few moments and reflect on what light masonry has put into your life brethren. Has it opened up new friendships for you? Has it changed your life style? Has it given you a better appreciation of the world you live in? Has it helped you along in your own personal times of darkness? Has masonry helped put you at ease in a strange crowd?

The list is endless brethren, I hope you can answer yes to most of these questions, If you can't, why not come out to lodge and we will share some light with you. Remember brethren, when we speak of masonry, it is an impersonal thing. Men make masonry, it is up to us to make use of masonry's light, it can't shine by itself, without our lodges and the masons in them.

Let's "Light up September", brethren, there's a lot of activities, going on, join us when you can!

See you in lodge, bring your light, I'll bring mine — We won't have any darkness around.

Faternally,

MARVIN WHITE, Worshipful Master
