Brethren: April, 1994

Spring is the time of year when we experience periods of sunshine filled warmer days which are followed by cool, rainy evenings. Spring is the time of year when farmers plant the seeds for the growth of healthy, beneficial fruits and vegetables.

However, as we Freemasons do not have to wait till spring to plant the beneficial seeds of Masonry. We can all plant our seeds of faith, hope and charity every day of our lives through communication and conduct when dealing with our fellow mankind.

The crops which the farmer has planted can only be harvested at certain times of the year. However, we, as Masons can harvest our bounty at any time we choose. Faith and hope are our "warm, sunny days", while brotherly love and charity are our "cool, rainy nights": each combining to produce our bountiful harvest.

We as individuals should always conduct ourselves as Freemasons so that, in time, our "Harvest" will be an extremely plentiful experience.

Fraternally,
Robert Thornborough, Worshipful Master
