January 1990

My Brethren:

It is with a great amount of pride, pleasure and honor that I accept the position of "Worshipful Master of Shekinah Lodge." I want you to know that with it I also accept the duties and the responsibilities of this office. Each of you can rest assured that I will do everything in my power to earn the trust and confidence you have placed in me.

A very special "THANK YOU" to the installing team, great job, well done and appreciated by all. To the Officers, Past Masters and Brethren who attended, your support is greatly appreciated — your continued support and attendance will also be appreciated by me and the officers of YOUR lodge.

We have many things planned for 1990. Read your trestleboard or better still come out to our meetings so as not to miss out on the action. The officers and I plan to give you full measure and all we ask is that we not be addressing our efforts to an empty lodge room. At this years meetings we will continue to impart the beautiful lessons of Freemasonry, however, rest assured our meetings will also be fun, perhaps exciting, but never dull. Also, take fair warning, you will be called upon to help, to serve your lodge and to get out of your easy chair and do some work. No one can do it alone, but all pulling together maybe just maybe we can get back on track and start to feel good about ourselves and about OUR lodge.

What Shekinah Lodge is able to accomplish in 1990 is up to you. Let's give it a shot

Fraternally,
NORMAN H. PEEK
Worshipful Master
