January 1991

Brethren:

Permit me to begin by expressing my sincere thanks and appreciation to you for showing your confidence in me by allowing me to again serve as your Worshipful Master.

I would also like to commend R.W. Brother Norm on his very successful year as Master in 1990.

To the officers for 1991. I ask for your continued support in forging ahead to record another banner year.

And to the members of Shekinah Lodge, I pledge to you my untiring efforts to keep Shekinah the leader as it has become known to be.

My thanks and appreciation is extended to the installing team of Worshipful Brothers. Bob Andrews, George Carty, and Bob Shannon and R.W. Brother Bill Goshen for a job well done.

1991 is filled with activities for the brethren and their families. A golf outing is planned for the spring as well as a trip to Longwood Gardens. A combined dinner trip to the Philadelphia area and stage play is planned for the fall as well as our standing activities including our Memorial Day Parade, Ladies Night, Past Masters Night and Feast of Sts. John.

Some new twists are also planned for our regular business meetings, so plan to keep active and see what the year holds in store for you.

Fraternally,

RON
