

January 1992

Brethren:

If it possible to be both humble and proud at the same time then I guess that best describes my feelings as I write this, my first trestleboard. Humbled by the sheer magnitude of the position of Worshipful Master, and proud that you, as my peers, have the confidence in me to elect me to this station. I therefore pledge to you that with God's help, I will endeavor to uphold the reputation of Shekinah Lodge and merit the honor which you have conferred upon me.

As for the coming year, I share with you a little story I recently read. A boy, with the reputation of being the village smart aleck was confronted by a playmate. "Why, you think you're smarter than Mr. Evans!" (Mr. Evans was considered the wisest man in town.) "I probably am", the boy replied, "and furthermore, I can prove it." When they located the town sage the boy raised cupped hands to the old man's wrinkled face and said; "I am holding a sparrow - is it dead or alive?" Mr. Evans looked puzzled for a minute, then smiled when he realized the ruse. If he answered alive, the boy would crush the bird; if he answered dead, the bird would be presented intact. Mr. Evans decreed neither, "It is," the wise man responded, "as you wish it!"

And the same can be said for you and me in Masonry and in the new year. For Masonry, it can be just a lapel pin, a ring or an item on a resume; OR a vital, active part of your life. The new year, like a coin can be spent wisely or foolishly. If you choose wisely, making God your vision and His will your goal, you can turn 1992 into the most fulfilling, productive, and exciting year of your life. It is, as YOU wish it.

Fraternally,

Howard
