Brethren:

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

In November I had the pleasure of attending Mt. Moriah Table Lodge, where MW Harold F. Jennings told this story, and I would like to share it with you.

There was a man who died and went to heaven. He was met by God at Heaven Gates, and God said to him, "You're a good man, you can come into heaven."

The man said, "Before I enter heaven I have one request. I would like to see what hell is like."

God said, "We are pretty liberal in heaven, so I will show you what hell is like."

So God took him to the Gates of Hell and let him look in. He saw a big porridge bowl with people around it. They had long handled spoons trying to feed themselves, but the handles were too long to reach their mouths.

The man said, "I don't want to go to hell."

So, God took him to the Gates of Heaven. And God said, "Let me show you what heaven is like."

So, God lifted a cloud and the man saw a big bowl of porridge and people with long handled spoons but with this difference - the people were feeding each other.

We should relate this story to Masonry and help each other.

In closing, I would like to thank the Installing Team for a job well done and welcome the new Officers for 1996.

Fraternally,
DAVID EXEL, W.M.
