

Brethren, the summer break is upon us and I can assure you that it is a welcome one.

I came to the East, having been elected to be Worshipful Master, with a great deal of hope and some trepidation. I looked forward to the task ahead of me, hoping that I would be able to fulfill my obligations. I was nervous, however, of what lay ahead. I didn't know what to expect. Would we be busy with Degree Work? Would our Degree Work be proficient? How would my special events come off? Would our fund raisers be successful? How would our merger with Neptune Lodge go? How would I handle the last minute problems that are bound to come up?

I think that so far this year, all things considered, everything has gone pretty well. I don't mean to say that there haven't been any problems or surprises, but that the Officers and brethren have pulled together and overcome them. I feel that we have one of the best Officers Lines in the District and I am very proud of them. They have worked very hard on behalf of the Lodge and are the reason that our year has been successful so far.

I would also like to thank the Brethren that have taken an interest in the affairs of the Lodge, they are a tremendous help. I also want to thank the Past Masters and the Past Grand Lodge Officers of Shekinah Lodge. They have already served their terms in the East and their experience and their knowledge of The Grand Lodge and its workings are very helpful. It's hard to know what to expect as Master until you get there, alot goes on behind the scenes that nobody knows about. There is no better feeling than being able to look back on an event, whether a fund raiser or Degree Work, and say that it was successful. The before mentioned Brethren are the reason that is possible.

Let's all take advantage of the 2 month summer break to rest and refresh ourselves, and when we arise, I hope that we all take hold of that sprig of Acacia that easily gives way and has no root, which will excite our curiosity and bring us back in September.

Fraternally, BRIAN A. THOMAS, W.M.

From the Senior Wardens Chair:
