May 1991

Brethren:

To date, the year as planned has been going extremely well. Our activities, the support of the sideline members, the faithfulness of the officers and their involvement in the many activities (both scheduled and non-scheduled) has been gratifying to me. Any lodge who is active will be and remain a strong lodge. The success of any lodge is directly related to its involvement.

Involvement, a word that has varying degrees of depth to the individual. Without it nothing would be accomplished. How deeply one becomes involved determines the extent of success one will realize. Application can be in many ways; to the profane, contemplating a petition; to the member, planning a committee assignment; to the officer, organizing his next station. All of these examples contain involvement.

Shekinah has many areas where a member can become involved. An excellent blood program, visiting sick and infirmed brethren, participating in degree night ceremonies, work parties at the temple, serving on one of the various committees, and last but not most important ... lodge attendance.

Yes, Shekinah provides many areas of involvement, ranging from the very physical to the most resigned. So please, come out and become involved. Let me know where your area of interests are and I will be happy to accomodate you.

Remember, without it nothing will be accomplished, with it nothing is beyond our reach.
