

Brethren:

May, 1994

It is now official — Spring has finally arrived!

Now, one of the worst winters in recent history is finally over. The ice that covered our trees and shrubs is gone as is much of the destruction caused by Old Man Winter. Now our Supreme Architect, is again starting the healing process of our natural resources, which is a process which he always accomplishes.

We, as Masons, also have to begin our own healing process, by righting our problems that have faced us in the past so that we can continue into the future as a strong and vibrant Fraternity.

The time is now to begin to work together as Individuals, Lodges, Districts and the Grand Lodge. We must all, as individuals, put our differences aside so that we can all work together to build for our future. If we start building now we will be strong and vibrant in the next century. If not, we may face a very uncertain future and possibly “a very bad winter” our own.

I hope that everyone in our great Fraternity will pledge to himself to help, on all levels, by supporting our Fraternity as much as possible. Even if it means coming out to only a few lodge meetings or supporting only a few other lodge functions.

Every Mason does count! Every Mason does make a difference!

Fraternally,
Robert Thornborough, W.M.
