

May 1997

Dear Brethren,

The month of May is here! The flowers are in bloom, and the grass is getting higher!

I am happy to say that the attendance is also getting much higher! Meeting after meeting is better and better.

I would like to congratulate my officers on some excellent degree work.

Brothers if you look at the list of officers you will see that most of the Lodge Officers are young men, that you probably know and have seen grow up in life. The work they have been doing is outstanding, and I know they would be honored if you would come out and see them perform.

At one of this months meetings, I will be presenting 25 year and 50 year pins to the respective Brothers. I highly look forward to presenting these Brothers with such an honor. For these are Brothers who have made Shekinah Lodge the Lodge that it is today, and I thank them one and all! This meeting will be open to our wives to enjoy dinner with us, meet one another, and to be present when their husbands receive their awards.

Also this month we will be marching in the Memorial Day Parade. As I said before, I need you all to attend. Our goal is to carry our Banner and our Parade Flag. The more Brothers that do attend, the better our appearance will be to the people and children in our city. So let us gather one and all and make this the best parade yet.

Fraternally yours,
Wm. Anthony Loteck
Worshipful Master
