

Brethren:

November, the last full month of work in our Masonic year. And full it is! Maybe not like it has in years past, but none the less filled with two important dates - Ladies Night and Past Masters Night.

Ladies Night is Saturday the 7th of November. Lets face it; without the consent and support of our wives, our labors would be much more difficult. What better way of showing our appreciation than to take them out for an enjoyable evening of dining, dancing and fellowship.

Past Masters Night is the 20th of November and while this year they will be conferring the Fellowcraft degree instead of the Master Mason degree, they still look forward to a good turnout of the membership to support them. I can't think of a better way to show our thanks for the many hours they spent in our Lodge than to attend their special night.

November also means Thanksgiving. On this special day I am thankful for at least a dozen extraordinary blessings:

Times past, today and tomorrow.
Hope, the promise of faith that rest deep in my heart.
Autumn days that lift my spirit.
Neighborly, thoughtful friends.
Kindness in time of need.
Special moments in my Masonic year.
Golden hours spent with loved ones.
Visions of a better way of life to strive for.
Independence, freedom and the pursuit of happiness as our God-given right.
Never-ending patience extended to me when I fail.
God, the Father, for His infinite mercy.

I am sure when you set down to that Thanksgiving dinner, you can take a few minutes to come up with your own list of "Thanks-giving". Why not give it a try?

Fraternally,
HOWARD YOUNG
Worshipful Master
