

November 1997

Dear Brethren,

November is upon us and I hope the air will turn cool.

My year as Master is coming to a close and soon a new Master will take over, but on my last month as Master, I hope it will go off without a hitch!

The month of November will not be a busy one, but is a very important one.

In the beginning of the month we will have our Regular Meeting, and also have our Official Visit of R.W. Richard W. Westergaard, District Deputy Grand Master of the 22nd Masonic District. Officers will perform work from all three degrees. I hope for a high attendance to show our support to our Deputy.

Near the end of the month the Past Masters will perform the Master Mason Degree on all candidates in waiting.

So Brethren, even though there are only two Communications, they are both highly important, and it will please me for a good showing of support for all who perform work.

Fraternally yours,
Wm. Anthony Loteck
Worshipful Master
