

My Brother,

As we enter into the month of November, it is a gentle reminder that the year is drawing to a close. One cannot help but reflect on the past year, the good times and bad, and speculate if next year will be better or worse.

It is no wonder why Thanksgiving is celebrated towards the end of this month. It is the perfect month to contemplate everything we have to be thankful for, before the rigors of holiday shopping consume us.

Depending on the person, numerous things could be listed. For me, like most, I am truly thankful for my family. They have always been there for me. Many times without any questions asked, they have supported me when I have fallen. They offer to me their assistance and ask for nothing in return. I am blessed to be a part of my family, and as my wife and I are expecting our first child, I am thankful that he (or she) will have the support of my family throughout his (or her) life.

I am also thankful for Freemasonry, and the fraternal family it creates. The lessons learned and symbolic allegories presented through Freemasonry have been enriching, and I am thankful to be a part of this institution. An institution that instructs us to befriend and relieve every brother who shall need our assistance. Remember that you have promised to remind an erring brother of his failings, to aid in his reformation, to vindicate his character when traduced, and to suggest in his behalf the most charitable judgement.

Freemasonry is a family, and has bestowed to me many principles my family has ingrained in me my entire life... always be there for one another... support each other with no questions asked... offer assistance without asking for anything in return. Each day I hope and pray that I can return a portion of what I have received from my family and Freemasonry.

Fraternally,
Brian N. Myers
