

Brethren:

October, 1994

As it is in most team sport activities, each person is a viable "support" to the "team". However, to achieve a goal or a "win", it is necessary to do so as a "team" or united effort. Each Masonic member is a "support" of our "team". With our efforts united in an effort to achieve our goals.

One of the main goals of our "fraternal team" is to keep Masonry strong and help it to proceed smoothly into the next century. I feel, as a Mason, that this is our primary goal. If our "team" is not strong and able to prosper, we, as a group, could fade away. But as a strong Masonic "team" we can work hard and sail to victory.

As Masons, we must try to do our best in whatever we set out to do in order to support our lodge. This is why continued support is necessary to succeed as a strong "Masonic Team".

Fraternally,
Robert Thornborough, WM
